Principal Title : Duke of Achéry.

Creation : Brief of Pope Pius IX, 1875.

Subsidiary Titles : .

Family Name : d'Achéry.

Family History : Extinct in 1923.

This bourgeois family was chiefly known as magistrates and was established in Saint Quentin in Northern France.

The chief was made an hereditary duke in 1875, by secret Ordinance of His Holiness, the Pope. However, in 1862, he was authorised to alter his name from Dachéry to d'Achéry.

The duchy was not destined to endure; Edmond-Louis-Rose was the first and last duke. He died in 1923.
