

Beloselskoy

Description of Arms :

Azure, in chief palewise a croisette patty and a crescent moon argent, and in base assurgent of a river two fish haurient in saltire, proper.

Index

Principal Title : Prince Beloselskoy.

Creation : By tradition.

Subsidiary Titles : .

Family Name : Beloselskoy/Beloselsky/Beloselski.

Family History : The family of the Princes Beloselskoy is comes down from the Princes of Belozor. In the Barkhatnaia Kniga and in other genealogical books, it is shown that the great-great-grandson of the Great Prince Vladimir Sviatoslavich, the Christianizer of Russia, the Great Prince Vsevolod Yurievich, set his son, Prince Konstantin, to rule the principality of Rostov. The son of this Prince Konstantin, Prince Vasilii, had a son, Prince Gleb, and set him to rule Belozor as an apananage. The great-grandson of this Prince Gleb Vasilievich, Prince Yurii Vasilievich, had a great-grandson, Prince Gavril Fedorovich Besolselskoy. His descendants became known as the Princes Beloselskoy,

Beloselskoy

Saint Vladimir Sviatoslavich (c956-1015),
Great Prince and Christianiser of Russia

