Principal Title : Prince Engalychev.

Creation : By tradition.

Subsidiary Titles :

Family Name : Engalychev.

Family History : There was once a Khan of the Golden Horde, named Mama. His descendants left to go to Russia and were received by Ivan the Terrible, Tsar of Russia from 1533-1584. Ivan was the first to use the title "tsar" and spent much of his reign enlarging and reorganising the Russian territories. Which was one of the reasons that ambitious young men saw him as the best route of advancement.

Ivan recognised his new recruits as Princes of the Mordvians. By 1674, they had become Orthodox Christians, with the general title of prince.
