Principal Title : Count Hercolani, Prince of the Holy Roman Empire.

Creation : Holy Roman Empire, 1699.

Subsidiary Titles : Marquis of Blumberg (1699), Count of Medecina and of Rivazzo (1530).

Family Name : Hercolani.Fava Simonetti

Family History : Although not originally from the city , the Hercolani have been associated with it since they were raised to the rank of nobles of Bologna, by Pope Eugene IV, in 1436. Clement VII followed this by creating them Counts of Medecina and of Rivazzo in 1530.

In 1699, they were made princes of Holy Roman Empire, male primogeniture, with the lordship of Floremonte and the marquisate of Blumberg. These titles became extinct in 1761 but were transferred by the Emperor to a nephew, who had already been made Count Hercolani by Pope Benedict XIV.
