

Kinsky

Description of Arms :

Principal Title : H.S.H. Prince Kinsky von Wchinitz und Tettau.

Creation : See text.

Subsidiary Titles : Count of the Holy Roman Empire.

Family Name : Kinsky.

Family History : Deeply rooted in Bohemia, the Kinskys have been of noble rank since time immemorial. In 1307, they took possession of the Castle of Wchynik and started using this as part of their name. In 1596, under the name of Wchynik und Tettau, they were added to the list of Lords in Bohemia. By 1676, they had become counts of the Holy Roman Empire and were then recognised as residents of Hungary, etc ... In 1746, they became princes in Bohemia, on the basis of primogeniture ; the next year this was elevated to Prince of the Holy Roman Empire. In 1861, membership of the Austrian House of Lords was accorded and then, in the early part of this century, the style of Serene Highness was added to their other honours. These apply only to the head of the family ; junior members are known as count and countess.

They still possess the Kinsky Palace, in Vienna.
