

Lubomirski

Description of Arms :

De gueules à une rivière d'argent serpentant obliquement.. ( Srzeniawa ).

Principal Title : Prince Lubomirski.

Creation : Holy Roman Empire, 1647. Poland, 1774.

Subsidiary Titles : Count of Wisnicz and Jaroslaw.

Family Name of Coat of Arms : Srzeniawa.

Family History : This family, although generally listed under Poland, is really quite international. The name comes from a place called Lubomierz, which is near Szczyvzyc. Always ranked amongst the nobility, they became counts of the Holy Roman Empire, in 1598. This was upgraded to prince, in 1647, and the title was confirmed in Austria in 1786. They were also recognised as counts in Poland, in 1824, and also in Russia in 1863 and again in 1888. Finally the grade of Serene Highness was extended to all the family in Austria in 1905.

One senior member recalled that he was arrested by the Russians at the end of the War, was completely shaved and made to sit, stark naked, in front of Lavrenty Beria, in the Lubjanka prison. He later made his way to the West, having lost his possessions but never his humour nor his charm. " Remember ", he would say, " we still have our people, our family and our friends ". It is true, the Poles in exile form a remarkably united band.
