Description of Arms :

Principal Title : Prince Magalov.

Creation : 1783.

Subsidiary Titles :

Family Name : Magalachvili, Magalov.

Family History : This is one of the oldest families in existence, with an authentic history. It started as coming from the dynasty of Karin-Pahlavides, one of the seven great families of the Persian Empire, claiming connection to the Royal House of Arsacides. This was around 250 B.C.

They then settled in Armenia and took the name of Kamsakaran-Pahlaouni. Then came a move to Georgia, with a new name; this time Mkhargrdzeli, which can be translated as Long Hand.

The senior branch added the surname of Arghoutachivili, from which come the Argoutinsky-Dolgrouky princes. The second line took the name of Magalalachvili, in reflection of their descent from Maghal I, who flourished in the XIV century.

Final recognition came from the Senate Committee, in Russia, in 1825.
