Family History : The Marquis de Rasella, in the year 1670, married Laura Altieri, the niece of Pope Clement X. At the same time, he exchanged his family name of Albertoni to that of his wife.

In the ensuing centuries, the Altieri family provided no fewer than seven Popes. They also collected an array of honours. Sadly, the only survivor is now married into the Pallavicini family - all the titles listed above being on the basis of primogeniture.
