Family History : The name of this family is derived from the French word. It is listed that, in 1271, the city of Altamura was a fief of one Ludovico de Beaujeu. In the way of things, the name then went through several phases: Belloico, Bellocolo, Belloco until settling down in its present form.

One report on the Blasonaria Generale di Terra di Bari confirms the holdin of Altamura and the French origins of the family. And in the local cemetary are the words: Princeps gens berloco antiquissima stirpe De Beaujeu.
