Family History : This family came originally from Milan and then moved to Sicily, probably in the XVII Century. In 1711, it received the marquisate of Santa Colomba. Then came a marriage with an heiress from the Gravina family and, as a result, the duchy of Cruyllas was inherited. This title had been created, by investiture, in 1791. The lesser titles of Count of Lecco and signore della villa di Bellagio were additionally recognised in 1929.
