Index

Principal Title : Prince Kudachev, Prince Kudascheff.

Creation : By tradition.

Alternative Spelling : Koudachev, Koudascheff, etc ...

Family Name : Kudachev.

Family History : This family is of Tartar origin and goes back to Koudache-Mourza. He, in the reign of Boris Godunov, received land in the Straits of Temnikov. Boris, who had been minister to the Tsar Fedor I, took over as Tsar, himself, in 1598 and then reigned for seven years.

The grandson of Koudache-Mourza, known as Prince Kapkoun, was converted to Orthodox Christianity and took the name Moses. The family's rank of prince has been recognised since the XVII Century.

Two distinct branches of the family now exist, issue of two brothers. Prince Ivan Ivanovich Kudachov founded what is now called the Russian branch. His brother, Prince Michael Ivanovich, started the Caucasian line. To complicate matters, the present representatives choose different spellings of their name. It is, however, one family.
